Sept. 1, 2021 License Consolidation Explained

The TABC Communications and External Relations Division has provided this information as general guidance and for informational purposes only. It does not cover all business circumstances for the listed licenses and permits and should not be viewed as a legal interpretation of the Alcoholic Beverage Code or TABC Rules. Industry members should consult their personal legal counsel to verify the lawfulness of any proposed activities conducted under a TABC-issued license or permit. This chart is subject to future revisions.
