Purchasing Alcohol

Distilled spirits must be purchased from a

- Package Store (P) that holds a local distributor's permit (LP) located in the same county in which your premises are located.

If a local distributor is not located in your county, you must purchase distilled spirits from a local distributor in the county nearest you.

Wine may be purchased from a

- Wholesaler (W) or a package store (P) that holds a local distributor's permit (LP)

Beer may only be purchased from a

- Beer distributor and must be paid for on or before delivery.

IMPORTANT: No unused alcoholic beverages may be returned to the supplier.

Selling to Minors

No one under 21 years of age

- May purchase or be given alcoholic beverages by you or your employees.
- May consume alcoholic beverages on your premises unless they are in the visible presence of their adult parent(s), legal age spouse, or court appointed guardian.

The only defense in the code against a charge of selling an alcoholic beverage to a minor, making an alcoholic beverage available to a minor, or allowing a minor to illegally possess or consume an alcoholic beverage states a person who sells a minor an alcoholic beverage does not commit an offense if the minor falsely represents himself to be 21 years old or older by displaying an apparently valid proof of identification that contains a physical description and photograph consistent with the minor's appearance, purports to establish that the minor is 21 years of age or older, and was issued by a governmental agency.

The proof of identification may include a driver's license or identification card issued by the Department of Public Safety, a passport, or military identification card.

Invoices

All alcoholic beverages on the premises must be covered by invoices which must remain on the premises during the duration of the event.

These invoices are subject to inspection by authorized representatives of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, or any peace officer.

Distilled spirits on your premises must have an identification stamp affixed on each container.

Any distilled spirit not bearing an identification stamp is in violation of the law and subject to seizure.

Immediately after emptying a distilled spirit container the identification stamp must be invalidated.

- A distilled spirit container may not be refilled with any substance.

You will be responsible for any tax payment to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Reporting Disturbances

You and your employees are responsible for the supervision of all persons permitted on the licensed premises.

At the first sign of argument or trouble between your customers, you should require those customers involved to immediately leave the premises.

If necessary, call the local law enforcement authority to have them removed. If a breach of the peace (a disturbance, fight or other violent act) occurs on your premises between any customer and/or employees, you must notify the local TABC office as soon as possible, but not later than five (5) calendar days after the incident.

If a shooting, stabbing or murder, or an incident involving serious bodily injury occurs on the licensed premise, you must notify the local TABC office not later than 24 hours from the time of the incident.
